

A group of girls representing the professional class, which will be graduated from the Richmond School of Expression this season. They are Misses Aileen Hord, Nannie Crawford, Annanda Pitts and Ethel Lassiter.

SOCIETY

THERE was really nothing in the world the matter with the weather last week, and the long stretch of pretty days were just pretty days, and nothing of importance happened in society worthy of note beyond the appearance of the first lingerie frocks and flower trimmed hats. This week will probably mark a great many departures for Europe, and there will be a good sprinkling of Virginians, prominent and otherwise, to represent the State either at the Court of St. James for the big functions that follow the coronation or in the crowds that will throng London to watch the show. On Saturday after the coronation Mr. Astor will give at Clivedon a grand garden party, at which the colonial premiers and other coronation guests will be present. Mr. Astor's wife, who is one of the most prominent women at the English court, formerly lived in Richmond, where she some years ago made her bow to society as Miss Nannie Langhorne. Her affairs given in that metropolis, and she is famed as a very gracious hostess.

Before the month of May is over all the big country places in the State will be opened up and the round of guests and parties that are to pass and re-pass with the summer will begin. The chief topic of interest for the latter part of this month is the annual horse show that comes off next Saturday and Monday, and the races will be well attended by smart society.

The Westoverland Club outing to Old Point on Saturday of this week will be another big society affair, and the special train that will take the club members and their guests to Old Point will be gay with parties for the occasion. Luncheon will be served on the train, and after dinner at the Hotel Chamberlin most of the younger contingent will attend the usual hop that is given every Saturday night in the ballroom of the hotel.

Going Abroad.
Mrs. Ben Palmer, of 12 West Franklin Street, will leave town this week for Boston, from which city she will sail on Saturday, May 20, to spend the summer traveling abroad. Mrs. Palmer will spend all of the summer visiting places of interest on the Continent, and will also stop in England for some time before returning to Virginia in the fall.

Entertaining in Washington.
Miss Margaretta Brooks entertained at dinner last night at the Chevy Chase Club in Washington, in compliment to Miss Dorothy Langdell, whose marriage to Lieutenant Wilby, United States Army, takes place May 25. Miss Brooks has visited friends in Richmond several times this winter, and some very attractive functions have been given in her honor. Last month she was the guest of Miss Mary Scarborough, who entertained in her honor, and also attended a very charming wedding party at the Hotel Chamberlin at Old Point.

Miss Lee Engaged.
Miss Jennie Lee, of San Francisco, daughter of the late Captain James William Lee, of Virginia, will be married in that city next month to Lieutenant Albert Rees, U. S. N.

Concerning the engagement the San Francisco Call of recent date says: "The engagement of Miss Jennie Lee and Lieutenant Albert Rees, U. S. N., was announced by Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Schleisinger."

The news is not a surprise to the friends of the couple, but the announcement that the wedding will be an event of June was unexpected. The date cannot be definitely settled, owing to the variability of navy orders that have so frequently interfered with Mandy, these are Good Biscuits.

Good biscuits are largely dependent upon good Baking Powder.

Thus, Good Luck is really bread insurance.

That's why you will find it on the pantry shelf of discriminating housekeepers.

Your grocer has it.

THE SOUTHERN MANUFACTURING COMPANY, Richmond, Va.

We Announce for Monday the Greatest Plume Sale Ever Held in Richmond

On Sale at Adjoining Building, 403 East Broad Street. Extra Salespeople to Wait on You

Kaufmann & Co

$25,000 Sale of Willow and French Ostrich Plumes at Savings of One-Third and More on Every Purchase

An event that will surely attract thousands of people living in all parts of the city and nearby.

You can't possibly overestimate the character of this sale. We have been preparing for many months, searching the European markets and getting price concessions so as to be able to quote prices that are utterly impossible of competition—quality considered. These Plumes are especially selected for this sale from male ostrich birds. They are rich and have full long flues, hard finish and brilliantly lustrous.

Read the items carefully that are described below. Note prices:

Beautiful Aigrettes

That fashion-loving women delight in, will be offered at bargain prices in connection with the Ostrich Plume sale.

98c French Curl Plumes, 14x6, black, white and colors; sale price	69c
$1.48 French Curl Plumes, 16x6, black, white and colors; sale price	98c
$2.25 French Curl Plumes, 18x6, black, white and colors; sale price	$1.50
$2.48 French Curl Plumes, 18x7, black, white and colors; sale price	$1.79
$3.50 French Curl Plumes, 18x6, black, white and colors; sale price	$2.75
$3.98 French Curl Plumes, 18x8, black, white and colors; sale price	$3.00
$6.50 Willow Plumes, 16x14, black and white; sale price	$4.59
$8.00 Willow Plumes, 19x16, black and white; sale price	$5.98
$10.00 Willow Plumes, 21x20, black and white; sale price	$7.38
$11.00 Willow Plumes, 21x18, black and white; sale price	$8.25
$12.50 Willow Plumes, 22x20, black and white; sale price	$9.75
$13.50 Willow Plumes, 22x18, black and white; sale price	$10.45
$16.50 Willow Plumes, 24x22, black and white; sale price	$12.50
$19.50 Willow Plumes, 26x20, black and white; sale price	$15.00
$22.50 Willow Plumes, 25x24, black and white; sale price	$16.50
$25.00 Willow Plumes, 27x22, black and white; sale price	$17.98
$2.48 Ostrich Bands, 37 inches, in black, white, colors and combinations, reduced to	95c
Amazon Plumes from 48c to	$1.25

A Fashion Story in Summer Dresses

The hot wave of the last few days brings forcibly to mind the thoughts of Summer Dresses, and hundreds of women whose taste run to refinement and smartness are wondering where to buy to best advantage.

We would just like to have a few minutes of your time and show you a few of the many charming Dresses our buyer has selected, and which can be had for a very small price. All that you can anticipate in style, workmanship and fit is found in this collection, and that conforms in every respect to the Kaufmann standard.

Fabrics of dainty sheer lawn, marquisette, French voile and lingerie cloth, trimmed in the newest exclusive ideas, ranging in price from $5.00 to $50.00.

Continuation Sale of Wash Dresses

For Ladies, Misses and Children, at our adjoining store, 405 East Broad Street, at savings of more than one-third on every purchase.

In the free and frequent use of the word extraordinary, we believe it is rarely if ever more truly necessary than it is to describe the values in this instance.

We bought them at sacrifice prices from makers who needed the ready cash to tide them over the dull season. Every garment has the unmistakable marks of high quality and clever styles to a remarkable degree. You'll appreciate it more by seeing these dainty Dresses, and note the wonderful savings.

MISS VIRGINIA STOLITZ, of this city, who will receive a diploma at a post-graduate course at the Richmond School of Expression the latter part of the month.

Snyder and Thomas Garland Snyder, also Rev. James Nelson, of the Woman's College, in this city, and has frequently visited relatives here.

A very attractive society function to be given May 24, from 5 to 7 o'clock, will be a big garden fete to be given at "Hillcrest," the beautiful country place of Mrs. M. C. Patterson, on Cary Street Road. A musical program will be rendered during the afternoon. Mrs. Patterson's gardens and lawns are noted for their beauty, and at this season of the year will appear at its best with the bright colors of the women present to add to their charm.

The committee having the Garden Fete in charge is composed of the following prominent Richmond women: Mesdames Cunningham Hall, George A. Tower, Edgar Willis, C. K. Bryant, Pone Nash, T. G. Carr, St. George Anderson, W. H. Habington, Thomas Purcell, William Todd, Gordon Wallace, Frank Powers, Fred Notling, H. C. Beattie, Park Register, Z. S. Farland, Frank A. Hobson, M. C. Patterson, R. H. Taylor, W. A. Thompson, George Warren, Julian Gunn, Samuel Register, James Smith, John Landstreet, Misses Annie Ball, Emma Dabney and Mary Ball.

At the Woman's Club.
The annual concert tendered the Woman's Club by the Richmond Philharmonic Orchestra will be given on Monday evening at 8 o'clock in the auditorium of the John Marshall High School. Mrs. Walter Mervet, whose beautiful soprano voice is so much admired, will be the soloist of the evening.

A most attractive program will be rendered, and each member of the club is entitled to invite two guests. Admission being by card only. Cards may be obtained at the clubhouse.

The last tournament of the season will be played on Thursday evening of this week, with bridge whist as the game. The usual rules regarding gentleman partners and the registration of tables being observed.

Luncheon Last Week.
A delightful luncheon was given by Morton E. Hecht, of Norfolk, in honor of Miss Ida Clarke, who sang the part of Violet in the big amateur opera, "The Little Ticoon." The luncheon was given at the Jefferson Hotel on Tuesday, and covers were laid for ten guests. These included Misses Ida and Corinne Clarke, Floribel Rosenbaum, Catherine Wallerstein and Sylvia May.

Morton Hecht, Irving May, Henry Gunst, Ralph Ludwig and Gus Ezekiel, all of whom took part in the opera that night. Table decorations were American Beauty roses.

Another charming function in which society is much interested will be a moonlight excursion, given by the Daughters of the Confederacy. The party will go down the river as far as Dutch Gap on the evening of June 6, and will be chaperoned by a number of prominent society women.

Returned From Gordonsville.
Miss Katherine Scott, of Richmond; Miss Virginia Emmons, of Charlottesville; John Scott, Jr., of Baltimore, and George Scott, of Richmond, have been recent guests of Dr. and Mrs. John W. Scott, at their home near Gordonsville. The guests of Dr. and Mrs. Scott remained in Gordonsville for only a few days, returning to their homes last week.

Homes Thurstons Commencement.
The twelfth commencement and annual recital of the Richmond School of Expression will be held on Monday evening, May 22, in the auditorium of the Jefferson Hotel. Graduates from the practical class are Misses Aileen Hord, Annanda Pitts, Pauline Harmon, Helen White, Merle Franck, Eula Bowman, Frank Hoover and Miriam Douglas. In the professional class diplomas will be conferred upon Misses Ethel Lassiter, Aileen Hord, Nannie Crawford and Annanda Pitts. Mayor Richardson will present the diplomas to the graduates.

Miss Margaret Stoltz, who received the professional diploma last year, completes the post-graduate course. She has a voice of unusual richness, and will render a statue pose, costumed recitation of much dramatic power. The reading of each graduate has been chosen with special reference to the adaptation to the individual, and the selection includes humor, pathos and drama. The Shafesbury dramatic attitudes, illustrating fifty-six human emotions, will be posed by the professional class in Greek costume.

An artistic drill will be executed by the girls of the two graduating classes in Japanese costume, led by Misses Margaret Stoltz and Aileen Hord. Mrs. W. S. Martenstein will preside at the piano.

Under-graduates who will take part in the program for the evening will be Misses Blodine Jones, Florence Kidd, Mary Nickola, Helen Nickola, Lucile Reams, Mary Barnes, Myrtle Hobson, Imogene Hazegrove and Annie Ruth Cobb.

The Alumnae Association of Miss Ellett's School will meet Tuesday afternoon at 1 o'clock in the school building, 14 North Laurel Street. This is the annual meeting for the election of officers. Reports will also be made on "Pinafore," the opera recently presented by the association, and plans will be discussed for a possible opera next year. Every former student of the school, whether a member of the Alumnae Association or not, is urged to attend the meeting Tuesday afternoon.

U. D. C. Meeting.
The Richmond Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, is requested to meet Mrs. S. W. Williams at 11 o'clock on Tuesday morning in Lee Camp Hall. Business of importance is to be discussed, and all members of the chapter are urged to be present at this meeting.

At the Art Club.
At the Art Club last Thursday Miss Nora Houston gave an interesting talk on the various galleries and collections seen by her during an extended tour of France and other parts of the Old World. Miss Houston possesses in a marked degree the ability to convey her own impressions to others, and as she kept her eyes open during her prolonged stay in Europe, her observations are of much value and interest.

Last Friday Miss Anderson managed a folk dance by the pupils of Miss Ellett's School, and the weather proving propitious, the affair was most enjoyable. These folk dances are of much interest to many students of child life, for they recall the "Days of Old," when these dances were undertaken by their originators and expressed so much to the people of those days.

Miss Anderson was particularly fortunate in her selections, and the pupils entered with unusual zest into the spirit of the dances.

Next Tuesday afternoon Lewis Boyd will probably give some of the songs for which he is so well known to Richmond audiences. It is hoped that the members of the Art Club and their friends will embrace this opportunity of hearing the voice so well remembered in "Pinafore."

Members of the club will regret to learn that Mrs. J. C. G. Bradley, who for the past few months has attended the classes of the school at the Art Club rooms, has left Richmond and taken up her residence in Syracuse, N. Y.

It has been decided that the classes of the Art School will be maintained during the months of June and July. Instead of ending, as heretofore, with the last week of May. The painters and paperhangers have been busy in the clubhouse during the past week, and the general effect is easy to see.

Meeting Tuesday.
The Know Your City Study Class is to hold a meeting in the auditorium of the John Marshall High School on Tuesday afternoon, May 16, at 5:15 o'clock. Pictures are to be shown of the most interesting phases of the work taken up by the class and of vital importance to every one interested in their city's welfare. Members are privileged to invite their friends to this meeting. The pictures to be exhibited were taken by Miss Eloise

Summer Millinery—A New Showing

We are presenting a distinguished display of Summer Hats, possessing distinctive style touches of the Paris artist, showing the many new shapes in Milans, Chips and Hemps and Lingerie Hats, in innumerable arrangements of flowers which are distinctively different from heretofore shown. In the collection are many new creations seen at the recent Horse Show in New York, and every Hat combines Paris charm with the practical style demanded by American women, at prices thoroughly moderate.

MAY SALE OF UNDERMUSLINS

Women will find this sale an interesting economy event. Never have we offered better values than we do for to-morrow's selling. Dainty Undermuslins that are well made, not skimpy, and of quality that will give excellent service. You owe it to yourself to be here to-morrow.

Corset Covers at 50c—Made of nainsook, trimmed with lace embroidery, medallions, beading and ribbons, in many styles.

Drawers at 50c—Women's Circular Drawers, of cambric or nainsook, with tucked, lace trimmed or embroidery ruffles.

Combination Suits at 75c—Made of nainsook, trimmed with embroidery, beading and ribbons; Corset Cover and Drawers, or Skirt.

Gowns at $1.00—Gowns of sheer nainsook, Empire style, trimmed with Val. lace, beading and ribbon; others lace and embroidery trimmed.

Princess Slips at $1.98—Made of sheer muslin, elaborately trimmed with fine Val. insertion and edge, deep flounce on skirt, tucked and lace trimmed.

Petticoats at $2.50—Of fine quality cambric, deep embroidery flounce, under-flounce, dust ruffle, lace trimmed.

Johnston, sister of Miss Mary Johnston.

Concerning Miss Crump.
Miss M. Alletta Crump, a niece of Miss L. C. Hust, of West Grace Street, and a former resident of Richmond, who has for the past year been training in the Presbyterian Hospital's Training School in New York, has been forced to give up her course on account of continued ill health. Miss Crump spends a great deal of her time in this city.

Celebrate Anniversary.
Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Wharton, of 1215 West Clay Street, celebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary of their marriage at their home on Wednesday, May 3. The house was beautifully decorated in silver and white, with a banking of dogwood blossoms on the mantels. Wilton M. Wharton, with his bride, divided the honors of the occasion with his parents, his marriage having taken place at 1 o'clock on the same afternoon. Another pleasing feature of the entertainment was the presence of four generations of the family. J. C. Wharton, of 202 East Franklin Street, was accompanied to the residence of his son by his daughter, granddaughter and great-granddaughter. Some of those present were: Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Wharton, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Duke, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Atkinson, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Wharton, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Wharton, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. L. Atkinson, Mr. and Mrs. Mays, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Rice, Mrs. J. Maloney, Mrs. Charles Fohlig, Miss Olga Pöhlig, Mrs. A. V. Stone, Mrs. Brewer, Mrs. E. L. Farmer, Mrs. William Jordan, Miss Lucy Jordan, Miss Alena Atkinson, Mrs. Pearl Guinn, Miss Ruby Guinn, Miss Ethel Wharton, Miss Cox, Miss Florence Wharton, Miss Ethel Lawrence, Miss Wharton, Miss Nancy Briggs, Miss Clara Garbett, Miss Glendora Clarke, Miss Alice Mays, Miss Ivy L.

(Continued on Third Page.)

KODAK Season

Brings forth desires to take an outing, and wherever you go take a Kodak with you. We can supply the demand from $1.00 up.

You press the button, we do the rest.

We develop any size film, 10c. Mail orders receive prompt attention.

The Richmond Art Company

5 East Broad Street. Galleries Always Open to Visitors.